

CWM SUMMER PROGRAMS

★ SPIRIT OF FREEDOM ★

Second in the "Spirit of Freedom" series featuring discussions with Civil War luminaries of our time.

Tuesday, August 3, 2010 • Civil War Museum

featuring very special guest

ED BEARSS

Noted Civil War and WWII historian and author
Popular tour guide of historic battlefields
Chief Historian of the National Park Service, 1981-94

*Consummate tour guide and lecturer, Bearss brings history alive with rich and colorful anecdotes, revealing encyclopedic stores of knowledge and enormous personal energy. Bearss unique style and vast knowledge of the Civil War will provide an evening of scholarship and entertainment that will not be forgotten. Bearss is available after the lecture to sign copies of his books, Receding Tide: Vicksburg and Gettysburg and Fields of Honor, available for purchase at the Civil War Museum gift shop or by advance order with your event registration.*

Spirit of Freedom Package (4-9 p.m.)

Class #0920439308

$65 ($50 FOM)

Only 50 tickets will be sold. Advance registration is required.

Bearss uses his vast knowledge of the Civil War and his trademark style to take an intimate group through the interactive Fiery Trial Gallery focusing on Upper Middle West topics. After the tour, enjoy a private dinner at the Civil War Museum with Mr. Bearss. After dinner, your seats will be reserved for Bearss' discussion on the influence and impact of the Upper Middle West on the Civil War. (This lecture will be open to a larger audience.)

Spirit of Freedom Lecture Only (7:30-9 p.m.)

Class #0920544308

$15 ($10 FOM)

Seating is limited and unreserved.

Advance registration is strongly recommended.

Bearss discusses the influence and impact of the Upper Middle West on the Civil War.

THIRD ANNUAL Great Lakes Civil War Forum

Saturday, September 11, 2010 • 9:30 am -3:30 pm • Freedom Hall • Registration Begins at 8:30 am

Event #0420355401

Cost: $55 ($45 FOM) Lunch included

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: James Lighthizer

President, Civil War Preservation Trust of Washington, D.C., James Lighthizer discusses the preservation efforts taking place around the battlefields of Fredericksburg and the challenges his organization faces in the form of development and urban sprawl.

THE ENGINEERS AT FREDERICKSBURG

Robert Girardi discusses the Federal engineering challenges of the Fredericksburg campaign; selecting the crossing sites, the battle at the bridges and the street fighting in town on December 11, 1862.

GRANT'S WILDERNESS CAMPAIGN

Dan Nettesheim will focus on Ulysses S. Grant's generalship during the Wilderness Campaign and examine his ability to adapt to a host of major new factors that he faced in the planning and execution of the campaign.

From the Jaws of Victory:

Stonewall Jackson at Chancellorsville

Tom Finley will consider Confederate General Thomas J. Stonewall Jackson's flank attack on the Union's XI Corps as the culminating event of his career. Tragically, the same event ultimately led to Jackson's premature death at the age of 39.